

Rally Talk Scheduled By Walker

The Dallas United States Day Committee will sponsor a rally at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Memorial Auditorium Theater with former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker giving the address.

Purpose of the meeting, Walker said Monday in a press conference, is to show "we stand for a United States and free nations and not a free United Nations."

United Nations Week has been set in Dallas Monday through Sunday. Adlai Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the U.N., will speak here Thursday.

Walker said Congressman Bruce Alger's bill to withdraw U.S. membership in the United Nations also will receive support during the Wednesday night rally.

Asked if he planned to attend the Stevenson speech, Walker said, "That remains to be seen."

The program for the U.S. Day rally includes "messages from congressmen", but Walker said their names would not be released until the night of the meeting.
